WAIVED EXAMINATION

Jarred Renshaw Had No Examining Trial Yesterday.

The examining trial of Jarred R. Renshaw, accused of being one of a party of four men, who visited Anna Gray, col., last Saturday night and by rough handling attempted to make her tell what had become of $120 taken from J. L. Carden a few nights ago, was called yesterday. A negro man arrested on a charge of robbing Carden was seen in the vicinity of the woman's house.

The woman swore out a warrant and secured the arrest of Mr. Renshaw who stoutly denies his connection with the affair. He is under a bond of $1,000 and waived examination till the February grand jury meets.

Yesterday Stoner Gray, husband of Anna Gray, swore out a warrant charging that Mack Radford was also one of the men and he was arrested and also gave bond for $1,000, waiving examination. Mr. Radford is a well known citizen, who lives on the Mercer place just north of town.

TEACHERS ARE NOW HERE

City Honored By Great Gathering of Instructors From Many Counties.

BANQUET HELD LAST NIGHT

Addresses By Notable Visitors From Kentucky and Tennessee.

With several hundred visitors in attendance the meeting of the Teachers' Association of the Second and Third districts opened auspiciously yesterday morning.

The outlook was not good at first. It was a rainy morning and some of the trains were late, but by 11 o'clock the auditorium at the McLean School was filled and the program began.

Prof. L. E. Foster, president of the association, presided.

The exercises were opened with some songs and play ground exercises by the small children of the West Side School, under the direction of Mrs. Mary S. Starling.

There was music by the orchestra and formal addresses of welcome were made by Chas. M. Meacham as a substitute for Judge J. T. Hanbery, who was absent, and by Prof. J. W. Marion, on behalf of the city schools. These were responded to by Supt. Geo. W. Curry, of Morgantown, who is one of the vice presidents.

The rest of the time till noon was taken up in enrolling the teachers, who were coming on every train. These were provided with homes and looked after by efficient committees.

In the afternoon the regular program as heretofore announced was carried out, with addresses by Miss Emma Hunt, on "The Visiting Nurse," by Dr. W. A. Ganfield, of Danville, on "Why Have Schools?," by Dr. E. C. McDougle, of Richmond, on "Preparedness," and by Prof. T. J. Coates as a substitute for Prof. McHenry Rhoads, who is ill, on "Education for Larger Service."

Last night the program at the Christian church was begun with a vocal solo by Mrs. L. E. Foster.

The feature of the evening was an address by Dr. C. A. McMurray, of Peabody College, Nashville. This was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Nell Esple. The banquet at the armory was to follow this with the following program of after dinner speeches:

Toastmaster—L. E. Foster.
Tombstone Literature—Rev. J. N. Jessup.

Everyday Fiction—T. C. Underwood.

Love making—Prof. J. S. Dickey, of Bowling Green.

Shooting Ideas—Chas. M. Meacham.

A Jolly Funeral—Dr. Jos. Severance, of Frankfort.

There will be two sessions to-day, one at 9 a. m. and another at 1:30 p. m.

The meeting will conclude with a reception by High School pupils and an automobile ride.

Prof. Foster's wonderful executive ability is shown in the regularity and smoothness with which the program is going forward as scheduled. It is estimated that not less than 300 visitors are here. They will all be enrolled before it is over.

"Be Sure You're Right"

City Judge Caswell Crossland, of Paducah, who heard some warrants against three safeblowers had been dismissed and refunded cash bails of $500, has been ordered to pay the forfeited bonds out of his own pocket. The warrants had not been dismissed.

MEN ONLY TOMORROW

Evangelist Culpepper Will Hold Special Service Sunday Afternoon.

BIGGEST MEETING IN YEARS

Attendance at Night Services Fill The Great Auditorium of The Tabernacle.

The Culpepper meeting gathers force and grows in interest every day.

The day service Thursday was a great meeting. Thursday night was the biggest up to that time. Yesterday, in spite of inclement weather and other meetings, there was a good attendance and the same was the case last night under similar circumstances.

Evangelist Burke Culpepper grows on acquaintance. Those who hear him want to go back. There is a personal magnetism about him that draws people to him. He has not the clear, ringing voice penetrating to all parts of the auditorium, that Sam Jones had. His words come in quick, jerky sentences, not mellow but easily understood, and his command of words seem unlimited.

There is much "rough talk," occasional flights of eloquence and through it all the deep sincerity of a man whose heart is enlisted in the work of saving souls. He is a man of more education and culture than Sam Jones and at 36 years of age is easily one of the great evangelists of the South. If you haven't heard him, hear him. You will be sure to go back.

The meeting will go on all next week.

Sunday afternoon he preaches to men only and on Monday morning to women only.

Her illness was of but a few days duration and her untimely death causes much sorrow among her relatives and many friends both here and at Dyersburg.

GREEK CRISIS IS AT AN END

Satisfactory Guarantees Given Entente Powers Their Troops Will Not Be Molested.

PROMISE MONEY INDEMNITY

Rumania's Attitude May Be Influenced by Great Russian Army at Her Border.

London, Nov. 26.—Cordial relations between Greece and the entente powers have been established with the Greek government's assurances that no attempt will be made to interfere with the allied troops should they under any contingency be forced to cross the Greek frontier and that, as heretofore, railway and other facilities will be afforded them.

It is understood that the allies have also promised Greece a monetary indemnity after the war for any damage which might be done for occupation of Greek territory.

With this thorny question out of the way, the British public has centered its interest upon the attitude of Rumania and the intervention of Russia. It is well established that Russia has concentrated a great army near the Rumanian frontier and dispatches state that a large number of heavy guns have arrived at Odessa from Japan for its use.

As a result of the success of the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians in gaining command of the Kosovo plateau, the Serbian government has moved to Scutari, while the army is defending the little fringe of Serbia which lies between the Sitnica river and the Albanian and Montenegrin frontiers. It can be provisioned from Scutari, from which place the Montenegrins built good roads during their occupation.

Monastir is still in the possession of the Serbians but the Bulgarians are pushing toward it, while the army of Gen. von Gallwitz is reported to be on the way down the Vardar valley to help the Bulgarians attack the Anglo-French forces.

Heavy cannonading continues on the Western front; winter has put a stop to any big movements on the Eastern front, while the Italians are persisting in their offensive and are daily getting nearer Gorizia, across the Isonzo, and Rovereto and Riva in the Trentino.

SHORT WORK

Aged Woman Freed of Charge of Murder.

Elizabethtown, Ky., Nov. 26.—The two prosecutions pending in the Hardin circuit court against Mary A. Graham, stepmother of Turner Graham, Jr., charging her of being an accessory after the fact of the killing of James Woods, the Upton mail carrier, and accessory before the fact of the murder of Sheriff R. T. McMurry on December 12, last, by Turner Graham, Jr., for which last murder he was electrocuted on April 30, were dismissed Thursday by special Judge J. T. Hanbery, of Hopkinsville. Both the commonwealth's attorney and counsel for the McMurry family urged the court to order the dismissal.

Chit Chat

GRACE—Dr. G. H. Grace, of this city, has formed a partnership with Dr. J. A. Paine and will move to Pembroke. He has purchased a residence in Pembroke.

DODD—Mr. Herbert L. Dodd, a former Hopkinsville boy who has lived in Florida many years, was married Nov. 24 to Miss Clara Gordon Hagen, daughter of Mrs. Lottin E. Hagen. The wedding took place at Lake City, the home of both parties. They are now on a tour and will be at home Dec. 25. The groom is a son of Col. J. M. Dodd, who founded in 1866 the Hopkinsville Conservative, which in 1879 became the Kentuckian. The family left here more than 30 years ago, Herbert being one of the younger children.

PORTER.—Senator J. F. Porter, who is the holdover member of the upper branch of the Legislature from the Webster-Caldwell-Crittenden senatorial district, it is said is assured of appointment as postmaster at Dixon, his home town, upon the expiration at the first of the year of the Republican incumbent. Congressman D. H. Kincheloe, of the Second district, it is said, will endorse Senator Porter for the postmastership, for which there are no other applicants. It is expected that Senator Porter will serve through the coming season of the General Assembly and arrange matters so that he will assume the postmastership when the Legislature adjourns.—Times.

COOK.—It has just been found out what Bob Cook hopes to get at Frankfort. Kaltentacher says:

"Representative-elect Robert A. Cook, of Christian county, left for his home in Hopkinsville yesterday after spending a few days in Louisville mingling with the politicians. He is an aspirant for the Republican minority leadership in the House at the coming session of the Legislature, and when asked regarding his prospects he answered very emphatically: 'I am going to win it.' He says it is business before politics with him in the General Assembly. However, Bob has 'kidded' himself into the belief that the Republicans have a chance to carry Kentucky next year."

Bob is a good talker and his local friends want to see him selected as time-killer for the Republican "Record-makers," provided he does not disturb business too much.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 26.—The Court of Appeals in an opinion by Judge Nunn upheld the validity of the law, assessing property for street improvement expense by the front foot.

The question arose in the case of Ella Vogt against the town of Oakdale, Jefferson county. Her property at the corner of Kenton street and Grand boulevard fronts 200 feet on Kenton and fifty feet on the boulevard. Inside lots front only fifty feet on Kenton, and she complained that she was assessed four times as much as her neighbors, whose lots contained as large an area as her own.

The Court of Appeals, affirming judgment of the Jefferson Circuit Court in favor of the town of Oakdale, said corner lots are considered more valuable and there is no evidence of unjust discrimination.
